Looking after your money

The insurer has appointed us as agents for the receipt of money, and in accordance with their instructions we hold your money in an insurer premium account until it is passed to the insurer or returned to you.

Payment

You are responsible for paying premiums by the due date. We have no obligation to fund premiums for you and have no responsibility for any loss you may suffer as a result of the insurer cancelling the policy due to non-payment.

We normally accept payment by cheque, debit or credit card or by way of a finance agreement initiated at the point of sale.

Your contract of Insurance – information and changes we need to know about

You must take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions we ask when you take out, make changes to and renew your policy. If you are in doubt please contact us. If the information provided by you is not complete and accurate:

- The insurer may cancel your policy and refuse to pay any claims.
- The insurer may not pay any claim in full or your premium may be revised or an excess imposed, or
- The extent of the cover may be affected. If in doubt, please ask and we will give you examples of what you must tell us or the insurer.

Your responsibility to read all documents

When a policy and related documents, e.g. policy summary, are issued you are strongly advised to read them carefully as they form the basis of the cover you have purchased.

If you are in doubt over any of the policy terms or conditions, please tell us promptly.

Your cancellation rights

Consumers have the right to cancel new policies within 14 days of receipt and renewal instructions within 14 days of renewal. Full details are provided in your policy summary. Any policies cancelled outside of this 14 day period may be subject to a £25 administration charge.

If the insurance contract is cancelled and no claim has been made, the insurers may return a proportion of the premium to us, less any reasonable costs incurred in providing the cover. Our commission and or fees will not usually be returnable. This right does not apply to a short period policy of less than one-month duration where cover has already commenced.

You may choose to pay by instalments. If, for example, you decide to cancel a policy or your insurer becomes insolvent, you will still be required to make the agreed repayments. If you do not continue to pay your instalments your insurance may be cancelled.

Termination

You may cancel these Terms of Business with us at any time. If you do so, we will continue to be entitled to receive any fees or commissions payable. We reserve the right to resign as your broker. If policies are to be cancelled, due notice will be given in accordance with the terms of the insurance policies. We will continue to fulfil any outstanding regulatory responsibilities to you following termination of these Terms of Business.

Protecting your data

Insurers share information with each other to aid the prevention of fraudulent claims. In the event of a claim, information is placed on industry registers for analysis. Under the Data Protection Act, you have the right of access to your personal records held on our files and we will tell you the fee if you ask us for a copy of your information.

Confidential data is not otherwise shared with other parties unless it is a legal or regulatory requirement.

We may also use, analyse and assess your personal information to carry out research and to enable us to give you information about other products and services offered by us and selected third parties which we think may interest you.

We may use e-mail, telephone, post or other means to do this. We will ask for your permission to use this information during the quotation process. Subject to certain exceptions, you will be entitled to have access to your personal and sensitive personal data.

What to do in the event of a claim

If you want to claim on your policy you should use your insurer claim line (details in your policy) or notify us immediately by telephone on 0333 043 3780.

You should not admit liability nor agree to any course of action, other than emergency measures carried out to minimise the loss, until you have agreement from either your insurer or us.

Conflict of interest

Although we settle most claims on behalf of the insurer under a delegated authority agreement, our objective is to settle every customer claim in a fair manner in accordance with policy terms.

If we believe in a particular claim that a conflict may arise, we will tell both the customer and the insurer in order that a mutually acceptable way forward can be agreed.

Quotation validity

Unless we specifically advise to the contrary, we will stand by quotations for 30 days from the date of issue.

Commission disclosure

Lawshield UK Ltd will receive commission from Volkswagen Versicherung AG for the administration of Extended Warranty policies.
